Klagenfurt is the capital of the federal state of Carinthia in Austria. It is located at the Wörthersee Lake and on the Glan River. The city is surrounded by several forest covered hills and mountains like Ulrichsberg. Karawanken mountain range is on the south and it separates Carinthia from Slovenia and Italy. Legend says that Klagenfurt was founded after a couple of brave men had slain the abominable "Lindwurm", a winged dragon in the moors adjoining the lake. The main attractions include a giant statue of «Lindwurm» fountain, Landhaus - Palace of the Estates, now the seat of the State Assembly, Klagenfurt Cathedral, the Minimundus, a park of miniatures on the Wörthersee, where you can see over 150 miniature models of architecture from around the world. Wörthersee, the warmest of the large Alpine lakes, with Europe's largest non-sea beach and lido has over 12.000 visitors on a nice summer day. There is also the Romanesque Gurk Cathedral nearby, an impressive castle Hochosterwitz and a surprising number of smaller castles that will make you amazed.
