KRAKOW - one of the most beautiful cities in Europe and one of the most important tourist, cultural and educational centres of Poland. It is considered as a cultural capital of state and it never stops to ever cease to fascinate all of its visitors. Krakow's old town is listed as a global cultural heritage by UNESCO. Every part of the city is remarkable and attracts all the visitors like a magnet. That is the main reason why Krakow is alive at all times in accordance with its rich history. Actors, musicians, painters, movie makers and artists in general contribute with their work constantly in making that special atmosphere described as “magic” by all the people who visit this great city. Krakow is a phenomenon that combines tradition and the past with the present. Krakow is colourful, vibrant, dynamic, cosmopolitan city full of energy and great fun on every step, where any visitor will find the content of their interests and tastes. Krakow is a city of friendly people and has a special atmosphere that will make you adore this country because of that fact. Krakow is considered as the oldest and the second largest city in Poland, and it is located on the banks of the Vistula River, populated with 760.000 citizens.
