Munich - the capital of the German province of Bavaria. The third largest city in Germany after Berlin and Hamburg. In 1158 Henry Love founded the city which gives the name of Munich and even then it becomes a center of trade. The Royal Family Vitelsbach in the year 1180. proclaims Munich for the residence of the royal family. In the fifteenth century begins blooming Munich until the Renaissance and Baroque built many buildings that today represent the most beautiful architecture of Munich. The most important ruler whom Munich owes its present appearance is King Ludwig, who ruled in the nineteenth century.

For car lovers there is the BMW Museum, and other popular places are the Toy Museum, English Park, Military Museum, Arc de Triomphe, Ludwig church, and much more. If you like shopping, you should visit the street Maximilian Strasse, where you can find exclusive fashion brands, and which later can walk all the way to the seat of the Bavarian Parliament.
