Timisoara - Over the years, Timisoara, the largest city in western Romania, has been influenced by many cultures. Turks, Austrians, Germans and Serbs all left their mark and their influence can be seen in neighborhoods throughout the city even today. The charm of this city, settled on the northern bank of the Bega River, lies in its architecture and cultural life. Frequently it's called "Little Vienna", Timisoara is home to musical and theatrical performances, art galleries, museums and a buzzing nightlife. A progressive, cosmopolitan place, this "city of flowers" was the first city in Europe and second in the world after New York, to use electricity to illuminate its public streets. The city is easy to explore on foot. Timisoara abounds with churches of several denominations, a Jewish quarter, an elegant baroque square and a pedestrian-only downtown area.
